"Our love for the Lord is evoking in many outside countries, especially in the Diaspora. Today, there are many young people who are engaged in the study of the Torah and believe that believing in God is the correct path for them.

It is interesting that I suggested to him to learn through a practical approach, which is what we were discussing."

Before a decade or so: the fact that the head of the Keter Torah Institute and the rector of the Herzog College, two facts led to the disturbing and shocking event that happened on Ariel Malaffe.

-Aaron Segal